Position – LAMDA Acting Teacher

We are looking to recruit an experienced, talented, energetic and inspiring practitioner to lead and develop our LAMDA programme within Schools. There may also be the opportunity to engage in additional project-based work as part of the academy curriculum.

Candidates will need to be experienced practitioners and have taught the LAMDA qualification in Acting at all grades. They must have a knowledge of the acting industry and a passion for performing themselves.

Prior experience successfully taking young people through the qualification is essential. You should have a passion for teaching young people and be excited by the prospect of working towards preparations for a final exam. You will need to be responsible, reliable and punctual and have excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

We would like the applicant to be comfortable in teaching students from 5-adult. We offer Acting, Musical theatre, group, verse and prose, reading for Performance, public speaking and Shakespeare examinations

Applicants will be expected to follow an induction training course with us. They will need to be comfortable to;

- Attend team meetings and contribute ideas for the forthcoming term
- Peploe-Williams Academy is committed to safeguarding children and young people. All teachers must make sure that they have safeguarding certificates that are up to date. If not, they must take the online courses provided by the academy in their own time. All post holders are subject to appropriate vetting procedures and a satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service Enhanced check..
- A car is essential as some locations are quite rural

If you are interested in the LAMDA teacher role, please send your cv to us

The successful applicant will serve an initial 12-week probationary period.
