

ISTD Dance teacher required in Ballet, Modern & Tap

We are seeking a qualified ISTD teacher in Ballet, Modern or Tap. They must enjoy teaching dance and choreography. They will be working with students from ages 3 -18 years & Adult classes. There is scope to develop our courses to a full time Diploma so there would be an opportunity to develop the hours to be working on a full-time basis,

You may teach classes of students interested in dance as a leisure activity or provide more intense tuition for individuals keen to pursue a career in the performing arts as professional dancers, actors or choreographers.

Much of your time is spent teaching classes and providing constructive feedback to students, but other tasks may include:

- Planning classes around the syllabus. A knowledge up to Intermediate standard is required.
- Selecting music and preparing routines.
- Assessing and recording the individual progress of students.
- Preparing students and putting them forward for examinations.
- Having weekly catch-up meetings with the Principal and other team members of the Academy

All applicants must be passionate to develop the Dance in the school and share the same ethos of the Performing arts as we do. The team have a huge knowledge of the Industry and want the right candidate to feel as passionate about developing the student into the Performing Arts industry OR to the best further educational establishments as possible.

Please note: Please submit your CV and write us a 500-word letter of what you could bring to our Academy.

The successful applicant will serve an initial 12 week probationary period on a 3 month contract.

Contract length: 3 months probationary period, and then a 12 months minimum and negotiable. Could transition for the right candidate to full time position.
